21 Pursuant to Judge Gilliam's Standing Order dated March 1, 2019, counsel for Defendant Life
22 Insurance Company of North America ("LINA"), Anna Maria Martin, respectfully requests 23 permission from the Court to appear telephonically at the Case Management Conference, which is 24 set for October 22, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. in Courtroom 2 before the Honorable Haywood S. Gilliam.

25 This request is made for the following reasons:

26 On October 22, 2019, Ms. Martin will be in San Diego on another federal court matter which 27 begins at 8:15 a.m. After this Court appearance, it was her intention to fly to Oakland International 28 Airport to attend the Case Management Conference at 2:00 p.m. that afternoon.

1 Ms. Martin's daughter lives in Los Angeles, California and has recently accepted a new job
2 in San Mateo, California. Today, she was unexpectedly advised by her boss at her current job that 3 her last day has been moved up from October 25, 2019 to October 18, 2019. As a result, she will be 4 relocating to San Francisco a week earlier. Ms. Martin would like to stay in Southern California
5 after her San Diego, California court appearance to help in her relocation to San Francisco, 6 California.

7 Ms. Martin understands that Judge Gilliam's Standing Order indicates that a party seeking to 8 appear telephonically at a Case Management Conference shall file a request at least seven days prior 9 to the hearing. In this case, counsel believed she would be able to attend in-person, but learned just 10 today of the change in her daughter's last day of work. It would greatly assist Ms. Martin if she 11 could remain in Southern California to assist in her daughter's relocation. As a result, Ms. Martin 12 respectfully requests that this Court allow her to participate in Case Management Conference via 13 telephone.

14 Respectfully submitted,

15 Dated: October 16, 2019
